

Library Mission Statement

Flathead Valley Community College Library promotes and provides access to quality information resources and services to promote excellence in lifelong learning, focused on student success and staff and community needs.